

- Cold chicken lunch with chips, bread, and butter
- Peanut butter and sugar sandwich, open faced
- Peanut butter and banana sandwich
- Jelly sandwich
- Peanut butter and Damson Plum jelly, which always turned the bread green by the time you opened that lunch bag at school
- Eclairs from shot up bakery at Manistique and Mack
- Bananas Foster
- Date bars from box mix
- Coconut coffee cake with bisquick, walnuts
- Rice pudding/bread pudding
- Chocolate cake with ice candy frosting
- Angel food cake with thawed frozen strawberries, whipped cream with sugar
- Marble cake
- Miniature cream puffs
- Raspberry flat tarts
- Brandied fruit
- Oatmeal lace cookies
- Lemon lime pop punch with lime sherbet and Gilbey's gin from Village Wine Shop
- Farm Crest circle fruit Danish steamed in electric fry pan, served with BUTTER
- Easter/Shower Egg soufflé with ham
- Toast with BUTTER; hot chocolate with marshmallows
- Oatmeal
- Stahls toast, tastes better when eaten at Percy's

Candy and Ann

- The Fall Harvest picnic when Mom was upset with me for some reason and opted to go to a birthday party for a friend of hers' grandchild instead of attend our family gathering. She did, however, send along some of her lamb and rice as well as spinach pie, which Betty was in charge of, as she was viewed as the most talented chef in the group. The spinach pie was all chewed up by a not-sharp spatula, and I took pictures as a joke.

Mary